Its Here! Woohoo! The website is revamped, invisibly moved, and had things done to it in ways that make me feel like I am a cavewoman just arrived into the 21st century. It is now beautiful, easy to navigate, and a true gift of time and effort by Tori. Dont forget to tell her how much you like it next time you see her.

It's Coming Soon-- Kelly, our esteemed treasurer, will be moving off island- for work, and to be closer to the grandbabies. Its a good thing for her, and we thank her for her service. Meanwhile, in about 6 weeks we will not have a treasurer. The books are in good shape, the program is logical and it is set up to chunk the numbers right out for you with a flick of your fat quarter. Talk to Kelly about it if you find yourself called to this position.

Name Tags: Yes, you know who you are. A lot of us know who most of us are. But wouldn't it be a kindness if our new members could get a little help with figuring out who we all are? Perhaps you have a quilted name tag stashed away somewhere, but if you don't, Tori has found a place that will make name tags for us. They are reasonably priced at $10 for the magnet backed ones, and $7 for the pin backs. Check it out:

Zippered Bag Class: Krispi and Marie are trying to arrange to teach the zippered bag class. If you have seen their bags, you know how enticing they are! They would like to get an idea of how many people are interested. It will be a two day class. You will need to buy the pattern for $13 plus have fabrics, zippers, interfacing, etc. (more on these items before class). Depending on where the class is held, the cost for the two day class will run approximately $65-$75. If you would be interested in taking this class please let them know. Based on response they will move forward with the class...most likely in mid April or May.

2015-16 - Lots o' Blocks Project Support Group

For those of you who have always wanted to do a Dear Jane, Farmer's Wife, Sylvia's Bridal or Civil War Sampler or other big non-repeating block quilt, this group is for you. If you'd like to benefit from some camaraderie of other quilters during the long hard journey, join the group on the second Wednesday of the Month at 4pm at the Mullis Center. Its an opportunity to step outside your comfort zone and create some interesting traditional blocks.

Tori is moderating this group, any questions go to her at: toribh@minethatdata.com

2015 Fair Challenge Theme is Here!

For those of you who like to get started early on your Fair Challenge, here is the 2015 Fair Theme: "Strawberry Fields For-Heifer!"

Create something from the Textile and/or Fiber Arts World to match the theme. Your take on it could be strawberries, the Beatles, cows or all of the above, whatever the theme means to you - just have fun with it!

Any ? Email Tori at toribh@minethatdata.com

Quilt Camp: We will return to lovely Camp Burton for camp this year. Dates are set for November 7-11.

Service Quilts: Mary Granger has made a Service Quilt chart. You can sign up to make quilts for Pike Market Preschool, Pike Market Baby Room, Quilts of Valor, and/or healing quilts. This way we can have a visual of how many quilts are being made, and what areas need attention.

Pins And Needles

*Cant find the Wednesday Quilters?

Sometimes the Wednesday afternoon group, Wild Rose Quilters, is displaced when another event receives priority at the Mullis Center. The blood drives are a common example. The Wild Rose group is usually able to relocate to either the Mullis Center Library, or the 'craft room' So, if you arrive to find the Center occupied by others, be sure to go around to the side door and look for your quilting friends.

*Want to sign up for a class? Class sign-up is easy! Mail your $45 check to RQAG, POB 45, Friday Harbor. Identify the class you are requesting.

NOTE: you are not signed up for a class until you have sent in a check. Please do not sign your name in the Program Book until your check has been mailed to the RQAG PO Box. It really confuses things if you sign the book without paying. The treasurer appreciates your cooperation in this.

*Quilts Sizes for charity quilts:

-Healing quilts- should be 'lap size', large enough to cuddle under but not bed size. Healing quilts are given in special circumstances to individuals in our quilting community (friends, spouses, people known to one or more of our guild members) who have suffered a major traumatic life changing event. We need quilts for both genders.

-Pike Place Day Care Service Quilts:

These will be given to 4 year olds and a few babies, so should be approximately 42" x 54". Measurements are not absolute but lets be sure they are usable.

-Resource Center Service Quilts, and the Baby Room at Pike Place

Baby quilts approximately 36" square can be turned in and will be donated for distribution to new San Juan Island infants.

*Batting Available

The Guild has batting available for members to use on service quilts. Ask one of the board members if you need help locating this resource

*Peace Island Hospital Cancer Center Quilts

These quilts should measure about 48'x60' or smaller. Chemo patients will receive one to use during treatments and will take the quilt home once treatment is finished.

*Discount Members of 501c3 groups, (like RQAG) get a 10% discount at Mr Sew Dandy, a machine repair guru for older sewing machines, in Anacortes

*Help the Guild's Budget

Connect to Smile.Amazon.com to place a qualifying order and Amazon will donate 0.5% of the sale profits back to the guild.

*Tell me what you know! If you wish to place information in the newsletter, please let me know. Contact Nancy Best nancyb1133@gmail.com or 378-5929.

I would love to include stories about quilt shows or shops you have visited, or just anything related to quilting. You can write an article or give me the facts and I will put something together. The newsletter is sent out monthly, generally shortly after the board meeting.
